

Confidentiality Statement

CapeXit strives to ensure the protection of your personal information through responsible practices. We deploy all efforts to protect the private nature of your personal information. Since we collect information about you using our website, we feel that it is important that you understand how we collect, use and store this information. This page summarises our personal information collection practices.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION

All personal information collected by CapeXit is done so exclusively with your consent, by means of a form posted on our website, an email received from you or by completion of a hardcopy form. No information is collected automatically.

USE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The personal information collected is only used by CapeXit for the purposes defined at the time of the collection, or a use that complies with these purposes. We do not share your information with any third parties.

We shall retain collected information for only as long as necessary, to build support of the required numbers. What data we store, is protected within industry acceptable means to prevent loss and theft, as well as unauthorised access, disclosure, copying, use or modification

We also use all of the information you provide voluntarily, in order to make your visits on our site possible. This information might, at a later time, allow us to add customised elements to our site, or to plan its content more appropriately, based on user feedback.

If you have granted us the permission to, we can use your personal information in order to connect you with our social media and Whatsapp Support group, with the intent of offering you the best level of understanding possible.

At all times, the sender of an email prepared by CapeXit is easily identifiable and reachable, via email or phone.

You are free to refuse our request for your personal information, with the understanding that it may slow down the independence initiative, and delay the call for a referendum in the shortest possible time.

SHARING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will not, in any circumstances, share your personal information with other individuals or organisations without your permission, including public organisations, corporations or individuals, except when applicable by law. We do not sell, communicate or divulge your information to any mailing lists. The only exception is if the law or a court order compels us to.
